

ABOUT WAKE UP BEAUMONT

Change Begins in the City you Live.

'Wake Up Beaumont' tries to cut through confusion about what the hell is exactly going on in local politics by discussion and informing listeners about how the system works, how it affects local South East Texans, and how they can get involved.

LISTENER FEEDBACK

"I've been an avid listener of the Wake Up Beaumont podcast since it's inception. What a pleasant surprise it was on my drive to Houston to hear the hostess' insightful analysis/review of Ad Hoc Beaumonts production of Waiting for Godot [of which I was a part]!"

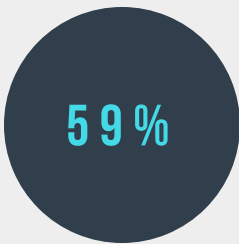

"I am so happy whenever an episode pops up - love the show, it keeps getting better!"

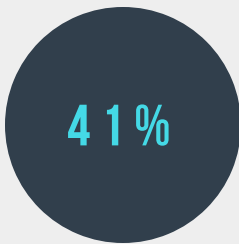

*All provided statistics are completely organic and this show has grown by word of mouth and continues to grow with every outgoing episode.
